Carol's Farewell

A huge thanks to Carol King who has worked for many years as our cleaner. We all hope you have a long and happy retirements Carol and have a good rest!

Do you need an interpreter?

Work meetings, training, doctor visits, lawyer appointments, study at Ara or university?

Interpreters have more available time to support you.

Even if it's a last minute booking...still contact us!

The number of interpreters working in Christchurch has tripled in the last 10 years. Most work related meetings, medical appointments and study options have funding to cover interpreters.

Contact your preferred interpreter for bookings or for advice on funding providers.

We are happy to contact other interpreters for you if we are not available. Just let us know the date, start and finish time and where it is.

Deaf Cricket Canterbury News

There was Deaf Cricket happening from January where there was 20/20 tournament held in Auckland. Some Wellington players helped Canterbury to make a team playing against Auckland and they have included some from just outside Auckland too. Our goal was to bring back Deaf Cricket and it was a successful tournament however we lost all games, but it was enjoyable!

Deaf Cricket New Zealand were looking for more volunteers so I offer myself to be involve so here I am. My aim is to bring back Deaf Cricket and try make a steady progress toward the future for the younger generation.

We had a friendly game West vs East 20/20 game in March it was great day to play cricket. East Team won by few balls, it was a great game. We just set up and try kickstart Deaf Cricket again. I am hoping this West/East game to have best 3 series per year so watch this space!

Back: Michael King, Miggy Javer, Toby Agnew, Herbie Agnew, Benjamin Fairless, Matthew Flynn, Patrick Stokell, Rodney Roberts, Dean Kumar and Barry Kay.

Front: Steven Harvey, Corey Myatt, Aidan Brown, Ashley Bensley and Jayden Kay

I am looking for more helpers like score person, umpires, coach, manager other just contact me text 0210579534 or Facebook: Patrick Stokell.

There is Facebook page for near future notices: Deaf Cricket Canterbury
